The efforts of Hon. J. Alonza Hubbell and Mr. Joe Morrison to unite the Arizona Progressive and Republican parties to date has apparently re sulted in several ways.

The first effect was to more firmly cement the bonds between the real Progressives, and just as might have been expected, stand-pat Republicans have not endorsed the compromise as proposed by their henchmen; very likely because the Progressives thruout the state have steadfastly refused any compromise.

compromise no doubt all would have ter the race next week been serene with the Republicans.

From all sections comes the se word: Progressives are organizing and adding converts; while from the BIG ATTENDANCE AT learns that the small fragment of disappointed standpatters, embittered at the Progressives, are totally disorganized and have little to say-however, there is an exception.

Standpatter Democrats and Republicans under one banner and Progressives of all faiths under the flag of progress and prosperity!

Col. Bird, to make his conversion more plausible, says that Abrahan Lincoln was a Democrat, anyway, be cause he believed in government of the people, by the people and for the people-the very thing the Progres sives are standing for, first, last, and all the time.

COUNTRY ASKS 'WHEN WILL CONGRESS QUIT

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 29 .-Special to the Yuma Daily Examiner by J. E. Jones-There is serious talk to the effect that the Senate may continue at work almost up to the day of election, and a few people even predict that Congress will be in session until December. ## DID WILSON'S AGENT

A few of the Republicans in the House of Representatives in an effort to make some political hay, have been endeavoring to inquire into the details of the emission of John Lind, who was the president's personal represeneative to Mexico, and they also want to know about his pay. The excore for the inquisitiveness is furnish ed by the fact that this is the time for making the annual appropriations for expenditures under the direction of the secretary of state. However, claim will not have the satisfaction of being able to verify it before the fall election.
